Wells –

We checked with our clients and have confirmed that no materials (legal mail or non-legal mail) have been returned to Mr. Ameziane (ISN 310) since the April 2013 transition of detainees from communal to single-cell living at Camp 6. As I stated in a prior e-mail, during the April 2013 transition, guards collected material from inside individual detainees' assigned cells as well as from the communal areas within Camp 6. There remain documents collected from both common areas and from cells whose ownership cannot be determined without further review. It is possible that Mr. Ameziane's papers are among this set of materials. The documents whose ownership cannot be determined have been secured since the time of the April 2013 transition. DoD is in the process of developing procedures, respectful of potential privilege issues, through which ownership of the remaining documents can be ascertained, where practicable. We will communicate the procedures to you once they are finalized.

In the meantime, if any of the prior legal mail that you sent to Mr. Ameziane is time-sensitive, I suggest that you resend it to Mr. Ameziane.

Thank you.

Dan
